MARKED FOR THE REAPER

About three years ago Mrs. L. H. Hakes, of 819 Kirkham Street, Oakland, Cal., called at our office with a girl thirteen years old, the latter weak and ill.

She stated that she had lost a daughter through kidney disease and the doctors now told her this one was in the same fix and that she could live but a short while.

The mother was nearly distracted. We told her that kidney disease was really inflammation of the kidneys and that it was in fact incurable under the old diuretic, but that an emollient for kidney inflammation had been discovered and that the child would probably recover. The mother took the treatment with her.

We skip three years.

A few months ago Mrs. Hakes called with a beautiful young girl, who was the very picture of health. She introduced her as the dying patient of three years ago, and told us to refer anybody in the world to her. She stated the recovery was complete about the eleventh week.

For the only emollient for inflammation of the kidneys of the world, we have seen, ask for Fulton's Renal Compound. Literature mailed free.

After a most successful year the closing exercises of the Male Orphan Asylum School were held last night in the presence of a large and interested audience.

The ceremonies were opened with prayer by Rev. J. Hallowell Dickinson, which was followed with appropriate music by the entire school chorus.

After a salutatory by Stanley Cross the chorus rendered "Our School So Dear." Mrs. C. G. Burton made the teacher's report of the work accomplished during the past year, and it proved gratifying to those interested in the welfare of the institution.

Following more singing by the school and chorus, a solo by Eugene Granger and the valedictory address by Elmo Burton, President John L. Williams presented the deserving scholars with medals, the rewards for good work during the past year.

Those who received their rewards were: George W. Louis Mullerulrick, Eugene Granger, Davis and Stanley Cross, Dan Mantio, Henry Nardi, Elmo Burton, David Lesner and Carter Dyes.

DEMOCRATS NAME MEN FOR THE HOUSE

Eight of the One Hundred Nominees Already Placed in the Field.

GAIN OF ONE SEAT ASSURED

Three Prominent Committee Chairmen Are Named Without Opposition.

There is much interest throughout the State in the probable personnel of the next House of Delegates, which will convene here in January.

Up to this time only eight out of the 100 Democratic candidates have been put in nomination.

The list of those who were so fortunate as to get by this early is as follows:

L. P. Stearnes, Newport News; A. M. Bowman, Roanoke county; Tipton D. Jennings, Lynchburg; W. G. Parker, Portsmouth; D. B. Powers, Jr., Caroline; S. M. Shepherd, Fluvanna and Goochland; J. H. Roper, Accomac; Martin Williams, Giles and Bland.

In the nomination of these eight men, all of whom come from safely Democratic districts, there is an interesting story, though the selection of one has practically nothing to do with that of the others. Beginning at the top of the list, it may be said that Lewis P. Stearnes, who has twice before represented the shipbuilding city in the lower branch of the General Assembly, and who declined to stand for another term, is one of the most popular Democratic leaders in the Eastern section of the State.

When in the House he served with distinction on the Committee on Finance, having established a reputation for conservatism and sound business judgment. He was an easy victor over the incumbent, William E. Barrett, who has represented the city of Newport News for the past two terms.

Colonel Bowman comes back.

The next man on the list is Colonel A. M. Bowman, the present chairman of the Committee on Finance, whose Democratic friends in Roanoke county wish him to retain his position as the holder of the purse strings on the House side. Colonel Bowman is a veteran legislator, whose return to the House will be welcomed by all who have had occasion to come in contact with him.

Captain Tipton D. Jennings, of Lynchburg, was recently declared the nominee of his party for re-election without opposition. He has been a member of the House for many years, being now the chairman of the Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns.

Captain Jennings, who was a gallant Confederate soldier, is one of the strong leaders of the House, who has won the affections of his home people to such an extent that he never incurs opposition when he decides to stand for re-election. W. G. Parker, of Portsmouth, is a former member of the House from Norfolk county. He was taken to the city upon a stretcher, having been severely injured in a fall while leading a delegation to the National Convention at Atlantic City.

David Bernard Powers, Jr., who has been in the House from Caroline county for many years, though he is still a young man, has been renominated, and is expected to be elected. The Democrats are assured of gaining at least one member in the next House, which circumstances prevented them from having two years ago. S. M. Shepherd of Fluvanna, has been nominated by acclamation, and the chairman of the committee of the counties of Fluvanna and Goochland. At the last election the Democrats split, candidates having been put up from both counties. The result was that John G. Luce, a wealthy farmer, was elected. This district is safely Democratic, which means, in all probability, that Mr. Shepherd will be elected.

Over on the Eastern Shore the oyster people have been to a large extent pacified by reason of the fact that the old-time friend, the chairman of the committee of the Chesapeake and its Tributaries, has been renominated, in the person of John R. Rew, of Accomac. The only other Democratic nominee not hitherto mentioned is Judge Martin Williams, whose district is composed of the counties of Giles and Bland.

MAY CALL FOR NEW BIDS

Electricity Committee Will Meet To-Night to Solve Problem.

The Committee on Electricity will meet to-night at 8 o'clock to hear the opinion of the City Attorney as to its powers in regard to the bids rejected by the Council. It is the opinion of several members of the committee that new bids will be called for on that day, and as the bidders are familiar with the specifications only a short time will be necessary before the new estimates can be opened and contracts awarded. That there will be a general saving all along this line by this course is now admitted.

Walter Mercer Honored.

Walter C. Mercer, director of music in the Richmond public schools, has been elected a member of the American Guild of Organists, a musical association organized under the auspices of the University of New York.

Called Flirt; Ended Life

Telephone Girl, Falsely Accused, Taken to After Reprimand.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 29.—Insulting remarks addressed to a girl employed in the Bell Telephone Exchange here and a reprimand from the chief operator when she told the man who had insulted her, were what she thought of him, caused her to commit suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid. She was Miss Elizabeth Monk, seventeen years old, of 1832 Passayunk Avenue. When the chief operator reprimanded Miss Monk the chief did not understand the situation, and thought the girl was flirting. Miss Monk, when called upon afterward to explain her conduct, experienced no difficulty in clearing herself of the imputation, which had been cast upon her. Notwithstanding that, she went home, determined to die rather than face her comrades in the exchange. Before she drank the acid she wrote a note. In it she called attention to the fact that she had been reprimanded publicly by her chief for acting as a girl should do when insulted by a man.

"I am too ashamed to go back and face the other girls," she wrote. "Rather than have the stigma of being a girl that upon me, I shall kill myself."

Miss Monk was almost dead when

MINISTER PAYS HIS BILLS

Letter to New Charge Says Retailers May Safely Credit Pastor.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 29.—The grocers, butchers and merchants of Atlanta have been notified by the First Baptist Church, of Fort Worth, Tex., that the Rev. Charles Daniel, D. D., who is leaving that church to take charge of the First Baptist Church, of this place, pays his bills promptly and is worthy of credit.

In a letter sent by the Fort Worth church to the deacons of the Atlanta church the request is made that the business men of Atlanta be told that it is perfectly safe to extend credit to the preacher. The letter says:

"Tell your grocers, butchers and retail men generally, and also bankers, to trust him implicitly, for he is a man of his word and a consecrated Christian gentleman, one of God's truest and noblest of men, holding the confidence, respect and esteem alike of saint and sinner, whether high or low, rich or poor, humble or great. His promptness in paying his debts has made him a power in Fort Worth."

CALL ON NATIONAL BANKS

Government Orders Return of About $25,000,000 to Treasury.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29.—A call on national depository banks for a return to the Treasury of government funds aggregating approximately $25,000,000 was made to-day by Secretary of the Treasury MacVough. Balances in all active depositories are uniformly reduced to the lowest amount which the daily needs of the government will permit.

The call will practically wipe out all the deposits of government funds in national banks subject to check by the Treasury of the United States, except about $37,000,000, which is held in active account, and which is necessary to meet checks of government disbursing officers, and $1,000,000, which
